

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Our country was founded partly on the idea of encouraging a range of opinions, and to allow this grand tradition of free speech to fall by the wayside in favor of more profit for large business conglomerates would be tragic. I respectfully encourage you to keep regulations on media ownership.
